Rules and Code of Conduct

You will notice that we do not have many rules to govern your behavior. This approach flows from the confidence that you can handle freedom and responsibility. However, there are a few basic rules for this program that ensure you will have the opportunity to get the most out of your time here, and that all students' integrity, time, and belongings are respected. If at any time you show yourself not able to handle the freedom we give you, then we will apply restrictions on you as deemed necessary.

1. Keep God first.
2. Live a life according to the Bible. If you have a personal conviction about something, don't do it; but do not push those convictions on anybody else.
3. Be on time to everything. If you are more than 5 minutes late to sessions, you forfeit your privilege of learning.
4. During times of scheduled activity, there will be no use of cell phones or other devices. You can keep devices with you, but if they become a distraction to you or others then steps will be taken to correct this problem.
5. Midnight is shut down time...even on weekends. You must be in your house. Visitors must be gone. No noise; you don't have to go to sleep, but respect those that do.
6. Visitors are not allowed to spend the night in your house unless first approved by Arise Staff.
7. No members of the opposite sex in bedrooms.
8. Excessive displays of affection with anyone of the opposite sex will not be tolerated.
9. Keep in mind that you constantly represent Jesus Christ, Arise, and yourself everywhere you go. Everything you do in action, word, or anything else reflects on all of these. Furthermore, you will be held liable if you damage any property.
10. Dress appropriately. You know what's ok. If you happen to be mistaken, we will tell you ☺

Disciplinary Agreement

I understand that I am responsible to abide by the rules set forth by Arise Worship Internship, its leaders, its supervisory personnel, and guest instructors. Any serious infractions of rules and/or conduct by me can result in dismissal from the program. In the event that I am dismissed from the program, I, the undersigned agree to assume the cost of returning home. I also agree to forfeit any possible refund. I understand that such action would only be taken under extreme circumstances or after being given a verbal and/or written warning.
